THE TOWNE FAMILY

Family of William Towne of Salem, Massachusetts

THE TOWNE FAMILY.

ABBREVIATIONS — b. denotes born; d. died; bap. baptized; m. married; da. daughter; and a + against the name of an individual, that a notice of the party follows. The Roman numerals opposite the name of a person at the commencement of a paragraph denote the generation of the individual in this country, commencing with William Towne of Anglo-American origin.

THE name of TOWNE, or Town and Towns, as it is sometimes spelt, is not one of frequent occurrence. It may however be found here and there, generally in communities of Anglo-Saxon derivation, and though surnames began to be used in England about the time of the Norman Conquest, and from century to century for three or four centuries continued to be adopted till they came into general use, this does not seem to be one that met with much favor. The earliest existence of it known to the writer is A.D. 1274, when Wm. de la Towne, of Alvely, a village in the county of Shropshire, England, about 20 miles S. E. of Shrewsbury, the capital of the county, was at that time engaged in the prosecution of a suit at law against one of the officers of the parish, and the following year was on a jury at Astley in the same county. The next we hear of it, is one hundred and thirty or forty years later, in the reign of Henry IV., when upon the windows of the church in Kennington, Kent co., impaled with that of Ellis of the same place, were the arms of a family by this name, being argent, on a chevron, sable, three cross-crosets, ermine. Thomas at Towne, who at this time possessed much land about Charing, and who bore the same coat of arms, married Benedicta, only daughter of John Brampton, alias Detling, of Detling Court, and thereby inherited a manor in Throwley, where he removed and erected a seat about one fourth of a mile from the church and named it "Towne Place," soon after which he died, leaving his possessions to three daughters, co-heiresses, of whom Eleanor married Richard Lewknor of Challock, Bennet or Benedicta married Wm. Watton of Addington, and Elizabeth became the wife of Wm. Sondes, of the same parish. His estate was divided about A.D. 1446, when Throwley was allotted to Eleanor the wife of Richard Lewknor. From the manner of the division it is quite evident that he died without leaving descendants to transmit his name to posterity.*

The next reference to this name known to the writer is in the county of Lincoln, where it has existed for more than four centuries. In A.D. 1459, Wm. Towne, D.D., was collated† at Stow in Lindsey, in this County‡—and in A.D. 1470, was appointed Almoner to King Henry VI., in accordance with the following commission, the original of which is in Latin.

Concerning the goods of such as commit suicide and the collection of things given or forfeited to God.

The King to all, to whom, &c. Greeting.

Although we refer to it with grief, divers persons of our realm, unmindful of the salvation of their souls, laying aside the fear of God, consenting to diabolical instigation, frequently destroy themselves, as well by hanging as by the sword, by drowning or other methods,

Whose goods and chattels, by right of Our Crown, ought to accrue to Our Almonry [or fund for benevolence], as the goods and chattels are known to do of those, who, without intention, by accident, may have unfortunately killed or caused the death of Our subjects, as horses, carts, chariots, ships, boats, and such like, commonly called Deodands,

Nevertheless, at the wary suggestion of some of our subjects, goods and chattels of this kind are fraudulently withdrawn from our aforesaid Almonry, and, as is said, are not at all applied to it.

We, considering the premises, have, of our special grace, granted, so far as in us lies, to our beloved Clerk [or clergyman] William Towne, Our Almoner, in augmentation of our Fund for Alms, all the goods and chattels aforesaid, forfeited (?) by the death of persons, as above, who destroy themselves; which goods, chattels and Deodands now belong or ought to belong to Us, in any place within our realm of England, from the beginning of our reign to the present time, and for the period in which he has been Our Almoner,

Moreover, appointing him Our Almoner to make inquiry, from time to time, as often as may be necessary, respecting goods, chattels and Deodands of such kind as aforesaid, and to seize on, take and carry off the same, by himself, or his deputy, or sufficient deputies wherever they may be found within our kingdom, as well within the liberties as without,

And to distribute them, thus levied and collected, by himself for Us in Alms, wherever he may think it best, ‡ Willis's History of Cathedrals.

Commanding and prescribing to all and singular the Viscounts, Mayors, Bailiffs, Coroners, Escheators, Constables, and all other Our officers and servants, as well within the liberties as without, and to each of them, by the tenor of these presents, that, in the execution of the premises, they be supporters, superintenders, comforters, aids and defenders to Our aforesaid Almoner, and his said deputies, under the peril which threatens them;

Any statute, resumption, authority of Parliament, or of Our Council, made or to be made in this behalf, or any other thing, cause or matter whatever to the contrary held, done, or perpetrated, notwithstanding.

In testimony whereof, &c.

Witness, the King, at Westminster, on the tenth day of December, A.D. 1470.*

In old age he accepted an income† from the parish, and died A.D. 1496.

In 1470, John Towne, Professor of Divinity, succeeded Alexander Prowett as Precentor‡ of Lincoln, which place he resigned in 1473 for the Prebend of Dunholme.§ John Towne of Irby, County of Lincoln, made his will Nov. 18, 1510. To be buried in the Church of St. Andrew at Irby. Legacies to Anne, Thomas and George Towne, his brother Wm. of Irby being principal heir and executor. This will was proved June 1, 1541. John Towne of Ludborough, County of Lincoln, executed his will under date of Jan. 24, 1637—sons Leonard, John, and William, and brother Richard Towne.||

Richard Towne of Braceby, in the same County, m. Ann ——— and had children as follows: Richard, who died in 1617, leaving wife Alice, son Leonard, and dau. Hellen not twenty-one years of age; Edward, who had children in 1630; Elizabeth, who m. ——— Phillips; Hellen, who m. ——— Oxman; Prudence, who m. ——— Walton; Ann, who m. ——— Armestone; Katherine, bap. The following is a copy of the will of his widow, dated the tenth day of Dec., 1629, and proved on the tenth day of May, 1630. As it quite fully enumerates the household articles then in use in one of the better class of English families, thereby furnishing an index to their manner of life at that period, it is deemed worthy of preservation.

Redd, published & delivered as my will in the p<sup>r</sup>esence of Katherine Towne, Marye Towne.

The earliest we find the name in this country is 1635, when Wm. Towne was an inhabitant of Cambridge. On the 18th of the 2d month, [April] 1637, he appeared before the General Court and took the requisite oath to become a freeman or voter.

The following is a copy of the oath as then administered, and indicates the importance our fathers attached to the right of suffrage, and the care and vigilance used to preserve, protect and perpetuate the government they had so recently established.

"I — — being, by Gods providence, an inhabitant & freeman within the jurisdiction of this commonweale, doe freely acknowledge my selfe to be subject to the govern<sup>t</sup> thereof, & therefore doe heere sweare, by the greate & dreadfull name of the everliving God, that I wilbe true & faithfull to the same & will accordingly yeilde assistance & support therevnto, with my pson & estate as in equity I am bound, & will also truly indeav<sup>r</sup> to maintaine & preserve all the libertyes & preivilidges thereof, submitting my selfe to the wholesome lawes & orders made & established by the same; and furth<sup>r</sup>, that I will not plott nor practise any evill against it, nor consent to any that shall soe doe, but will timely discover & reveale the same to lawfull aucthority nowe here established, for the speedy preventing thereof. Moreover, I doe solemnely bynde my myselve in the sight of God, that when I shalbe called to giue my voice touching any such matter of this state, wherein freemen are to deale, I will giue my vote & suffrage, as I shall iudge in myne owne conscience may best conduce & tend to the publike weale of the body, without respect of psons or fav<sup>r</sup> of any man. Soe helpe mee God, in the Lord Jesus Christ."

He was Town Clerk in 1639, purchased land at Cambridge in 1653, of David Stone and Thomas Danforth, and in 1655 of Edmund Goffe, was tythingman in 1680, and died April 30, 1685, aged 80 years. Amount of his Estate, £118 13s. 6d. The name of his wife was Martha, and she died in Jan., 1674. Their children were: Peter, born in England about the beginning of the year 1633; and Mary, born at Cambridge in 1637. Peter married, first, Joanna; second, Elizabeth, who was living and was of Braintree in 1721. He was Administrator of the Estate of his father, and from its settlement appears to have been an only son; was a constable at Cambridge, in 1668, '76, '90, '91 and '94, selectman in 1695, and died Nov. 2, 1705, aged 72 ys. 10 mos. His name may be found upon a Tombstone at Cambridge, with the inscription partially obliterated. The following is a copy of his Will,* and the final settlement of his estate indicates that he left no one to transmit his name to posterity, and that with the death of his widow the name became extinct so far as it relates to this family at Cambridge.

In y<sup>e</sup> name of God. Amen. I, Peter Town, of Cambridg in New England, being Weak in Body, but of sound mind, do make this my last Will and Testam<sup>t</sup>. Impr. I com'nd my Soul to y<sup>e</sup> mercy of God in Jesus Christ, and my body to y<sup>e</sup> Grave decently to be buried without profuseness according to y<sup>e</sup> discretion of those whom I shall constitute y<sup>e</sup> Overseers of this my Last Will and Testam<sup>t</sup>; and as to my Temporall Estat<sup>e</sup> my Will is that it be thus disposed of: First of all, I Will and bequeath to my Dear Wife the whole of my Real Estate, to be quietly enjoyed and possessed by her so Long as she shall continue my Widow. It. I will and bequeath to my dear Wife, the sum of one hundred pounds money, to be disposed of by her as she shall see meet. Item. I will and bequeath to my Dear Wife, my silver Cups, my beds and bedding, all my Pewter and brass, and all my other household stuff to her and her heirs forever. Item. some sober Religious family at y<sup>e</sup> discretion and according to the direction of my Overseers, to live there as a servant till she come to be twenty years old, and Fidella to have y<sup>e</sup> benefit and advantage of w<sup>t</sup> should be allowed her for her service in y<sup>e</sup> said time, then to have her Freedom. Item. My Will is, that as my servants come to have their freedom They shall each have ten pounds money paid them by my Executrix : And if either dyes before y<sup>e</sup> time of their freedom their Legacye to go to y<sup>e</sup> surviving, and be equally divided among y<sup>m</sup>. Item. My Will is, That when my wife dy's or ceases to be my Widow, Then the whole of my Real Estate shall be divided among my five first cousins living at Bridgewater, viz. : my cousin John Howard, my cousin Nathaniel Howard, my cousin Joseph Howard, my cousin Elisha Howard, and my cousin Mary Mitchell, to be unto them and their heirs forever. Provided, however, and it is my Will, that in case my cousin Joseph Howard will give to Stephen his Negro servant his freedom, when he comes to be six and twenty years old, then he shall have twenty pounds more of this my Real Estate when it comes to be Divided, than my other cousins, and that otherwise he shall have no interest therein. Item. My Will is, that my once negro servant Jane, who lives at Boston, shall have y<sup>e</sup> sum of five pounds paid her wthin six months after my decease : Also, I will and bequeath to my wife's mother (Hannah Willbur) the sum of three pounds money, to be paid in three months after my decease :—And if so much of my estate shall after all this remain undisposed of by me my Will is, that thirty pounds shall be paid to y<sup>e</sup> easing of y<sup>e</sup> poorer sort of people in Cambridge, y<sup>t</sup> shall be rated to y<sup>e</sup> building a new meeting house at y<sup>e</sup> discretion and ordering of my Overseers, Deacon Hastings and Sam'l Cooper being joyned wth them : Provided and it being still my Will, y<sup>t</sup> the Town wthin y<sup>e</sup> space of three months after my decease do meet and by a Publick Vote agree upon y<sup>e</sup> new building to be begun, and set about forthwith, as also y<sup>t</sup> they do not put my Dear Wife or any part of her estate into y<sup>e</sup> Rate for the said building when they come to make the rate : Otherwise, what I have Willed with respect to the New Meeting house shall be altogether Void and insignificant. And as to w<sup>t</sup> shall yet remain undisposed of by me, I will and bequeath y<sup>e</sup> Improvement and use of it to my Dear Wife so long as she shall continue my Widow, to be improved by her for her comfort and support, It being provided y<sup>t</sup> she does not run y<sup>e</sup> hazzard of loosing y<sup>e</sup> money by letting it to one person or another, and at her death or marriage w<sup>t</sup> remains shall be equally disposed of and divided among my five cousins aforementioned. Ite. My Will is, that my loving and trusty friends Nath<sup>l</sup> Hancock, sen., Solomon Prentiss, sen., and Nicholas Fessenden, sen., be y<sup>e</sup> Overseers of y<sup>e</sup> my Last Will and Testament, and that they be each allowed y<sup>e</sup> sum of Twenty shillings money. Finally I do constitute and appoint my Dear Wife y<sup>e</sup> sole executrix of this my Will.

In Witness to all wch I hereby set my hand and seal this Twenty-eighth day of May, in y<sup>e</sup> year of Our Lord Our Thousand Seven hundred and five. A memorandum before signing. That it is my desire y<sup>t</sup> my Dear Wife do let Mr. Nicholas Fossenden, School master, have five pounds as a token of my respect to him, unless my wife shall want it for her own comfort—she to be judge. PETER TOWN [L.S.]

Signed, sealed and published in presence of William Brattle, Nath'l Hancock, sen., Owen Warland.

We now come to WILLIAM TOWNE, the Anglo-American progenitor of descendants who have settled in a majority of the States of the American Union. Of his birth-place or parentage we know nothing positively, though he may have come from the County of Lincoln in England, and may have been the son of Richard and Ann Towne, of Bracby.

The earliest positive information we have relative to him is at Yarmouth, Norfolk Co., a city of considerable maritime importance, situated on the East coast of England, one hundred and eight miles in a direct line, and 120 miles by railroad northeast of London.

The origin and early history of this place, like many others in the British Kingdom, is quite obscure. The Romans, in the first century of the Christian Era, had a frontier military post* near here, and later it was called Cerdick's sand, or Cerdick's shore, deriving its name from Cerdick, a warlike Saxon, who, A.D. 496, with his son Cenrick, and a fleet of five ships, invaded the country at this point, entered the mouth of the river Yare, fought a battle, put the Britons to flight, and founded a colony. It being a low marshy neighborhood, the location proved unhealthy, the settlement was finally abandoned, and the colony took up their residence with the West Saxons.† Henry

\* The fortification is about three miles west of the city, and was erected by Publius Ostorius about the middle of the first century. This noble monument of Roman Art, the most considerable, and perhaps the most perfect to be found in Britain, is built upon the brow of the hills which skirt the eastern bank of the river Waveney at its confluence with the Yare. Quadrilateral in its form, it makes an almost regular parallelogram, its length being 640 feet and its breadth 370 feet, the space within the walls of the camp comprising nearly six acres. The walls are about 10 feet in height, about 9 feet in thickness, and are constructed of rubble masonry, faced with flint, interlaced in regular courses of about 21 inches by three layers of tiles or bricks about 2 inches apart. The bricks are red, of a fine close texture, and as they lay in the wall a surface is exposed  $1\frac{1}{2}$  by 9 inches, and so solid and enduring is the masonry that the writer found it difficult, without the aid of tools, to procure on the premises a piece of the flint and brick an inch square, as a sample of the material of which the wall was built, and a memento of a visit to this interesting locality.

† Blomefield and Parkin's History of Norfolk, and Swinden's History of Yarmouth.

Manship, Sen., a merchant in 1560, the reputed author of a very reliable and carefully prepared manuscript history of the place, who tells us he was here "bredd and borne," thus speaks of its origin. "First of the Antiquitye of the Towne and Burroughle of Greate Yermouth. The verye seate of that Towne, that ys to saye, the place and grounde whereuppon the Towne is buylded, and nowe dothe stand, was percell of a greate sande lyinge within the mayne sea, at the mouthe of the fludd or ryver called Hierus, beinge contynuallye under water and overflown withe the sea, of which ryver the name of the same Towne was derived when it was firste named, vidz. Hiermouth, or otherwise without aspiration it was called Yermouth. And the tyme that y<sup>t</sup> was a sand in the sea was when Kyng Canutus reigned in Englande and longe before, whiche was aboute the yere of our Savior Jesus Christe, his Incarnacion, One Thousand, as by auneyente recordes thereof y<sup>t</sup> doeth appeare."

He further says, that "In the tyme of the Reigne of Kinge Edwarde the Confessor, the saide sand beganne to growe into sight at the lowe water, and in the tymes of the Reygues of Kinge Harrolde and Kinge William y<sup>e</sup> Conquerror, the saide sande did growe to be drye, and was not overflown by the Sea, but waxed in heighte, and also in greatness, in so muche as greate store of people of the Counties of Norff. and Suffolke did resorte thither, and did pitche Tabernacles and Bothes for the entertaynenge of such Seafaringe men and Fishermen and Merchants as wold resorte unto that place, either to sell their Herringes,* fish and other comodities, and for providenge suche things as those Seamen did neede and wante. The which things caused greate store of Seafaringe men to resorte thither; but especiallie the Fishermen of this Land; as also greate numbers of the Fishermen of Fraunce, Flanders, and of Holland, Zealande, and all the lowe Countreyes. And in the tyme of the Reigne of Kinge William Rufus, Kinge of this Realme, one Herbertus, Bischopp of the see of Norwich,† perceyvenge greate resorte and concourse of people to be daylie and yerelie uppon the said Sande, and intendinge to provide for there sowles healthe, did founde and buyld uppon the said Sande a certain Chappell for the devotion of the people resorting thither, and therein did place a Chappelayne of his owne to say and read divine service."

* Celebrated at the present time for its Herring Fisheries, there having been exported to Foreign Ports from Yarmouth, in 1860, 51,684 bbls.; in 1861, 35,849 bbls.; 1862, 44,786 bbls.; 1863, 41,317 bbls.; and in 1864, 38,522; in addition to which, large quantities are forwarded to London by rail for exportation from that port.

† Herbert de Lossing, Bishop of Norwich, came from Normandy with William Rufus, and for his skill in adulation, says William of Malmesbury, was surnamed the flatterer. He was cited before Pope Pascal II. at Rome in 1093, for simoniacal practices, and according to the Saron Chronicle, was deprived of his pastoral staff in 1094; but this was restored on his undertaking to employ his wealth in the building of churches; in fulfilment of which, the one under consideration was founded. He was a man of great learning and eloquence, was at one period Lord Chancellor of England, died in 1119, and was buried in the Cathedral at Norwich.

In this church, founded in A.D. 1123, dedicated to St. Nicholas in 1251,* and still retaining the name, were married, March 25, 1620,

CHURCH OF ST. NICHOLAS.

* The extreme length of this structure is 230 feet, its greatest width 151 feet. The lot, upon which the church stands, contains upwards of eight acres, and the writer noticed the following New England names upon the Tombstones, viz.: Bailey, Briggs, Bowles, Cobb, Clarke, Collins, Carr, Dawson, Ellis, Edwards, Fiske, Fowler, Forster, Fuller, Francis, Giles, Gray, Goddard, Hart, Herbert, Johnson, Kemp, Lowe, Lawrence, Lee, Marston, Marshall, Moore, Mason, Nichols, Pearson, Plummer, Pearce, Reed, Read, Shepard, Symonds, Simpson, Seamans, Shreve, Thornton, Thompson, Wright, Wales and Wilson; also the name of Matthew Champion, who died Oct. 8, 1793, aged 111 years; and the following suggestive inscription upon the tombstone of a mariner:

"This life's a voyage, the world's a sea,
Where men are strangely toss'd about;
Heaven's our port, steer thou that way;
There thou shall anchor safe, no doubt."

William Towne and Joanna Blessing, and here their six first children were baptized. The next we hear of this family is at Salem, Essex County, Massachusetts, where in the book of early grants appears the following: "11. 8 mo., 1610, Granted to Wm. Towne, a little neck of Land right over against his house on the other side of the river." He is also referred to in the Court Records of the same year thus: "17th Qt., last of 4th mo. and 1. 5th mo. 1610. Wm. Towne pl. agt. Jn<sup>o</sup> Cook def. in act. of debt, Jury find for pl. some to be deputed to measure John Cook's land and what is remaining to make up Goodman Town's land and if it be fyve acres to pay Towne fyve marks and w<sup>t</sup> is wanting of fyve acres to abate 13s. 4d. p. acre: And costs 4s.: 0." Wm. Towne's residence was in that part of Salem known as the "North-fields," and he remained at this place till 1651, the year following the incorporation of the town of Topsfield, when he purchased a tract of land in the latter place of Wm. Paine, of Ipswich, "containing forty acres of ground or thereabouts, whereof six acres is by the sellar which Wm. Howard of Topsfield built, and about thirty-two acres joining up to the sayd six acres eastward of it, part of which is plow ground, another part is meadow, another part is upland unplowed, all lying together, having the meadow and the plow ground of the said Wm. Howard towards the east and the ground of Walter Roper towards the North and a Sertaine River towards the South or South West. Also a little piece of meddow of about two acres lying on the South side of the river directly against the plains of the said Wm. Howard, having y<sup>e</sup> grounds of the said Wm. Howard towards y<sup>e</sup> East and the said River towards y<sup>e</sup> North and upland towards the South."

In 1652, he sold his property in Salem to Harry Bullock, in 1656 purchased additional land in Topsfield, and in 1663. "in consideration of natural affection and the contemplated marriage of their son Joseph Towne, with Plebe Perkins, the dau. of Thomas Perkins," he and his wife conveyed to their said son Joseph, two-thirds "of the home wherein they then did dwell, with Barne, out houses, yard, gardens, orchards, lying situate and being in Topsfield, together with a parcel of broken upland by the meddow side, only a cartway reserved between the said land and the meadow towards the South, and the land of Jacob Towne towards the East, and the land of Jacob Towne and Edmund Towne towards the North, and the lands of Isaac Estie towards the West—also another parcell of land broke up and unbroke, containing by estimation thirty acres, bounded by the way towards the South-East and North-East, and a way also towards the South-West; the land of Zachens Gould and Edmund Towne towards the North-West, and the land of Edmund Towne and Isaac Estie towards the North. Also, a parcell of meddow lying on the North side of the river, having the river for the bounds towards the South, a highway towards the West, and a way towards the North, and meddow of Jacob Towne towards the East, containing by estimation fourteen acres."

All these conveyances being made with the desire that their said son Joseph should have the first refusal of the remaining third when the same should be for sale. IV. ISRAEL TOWNE, son of Joseph and Margaret (Case) Towne, was b. at Topsfield, March 24, 1705, and May 23, 1729, m. Grace Gardner, of Middleton. He was one of the early settlers of Narragansett No. 3, afterwards named Souhegan West, and in 1760 incorporated by New Hampshire, and called Amherst. Tradition says his was the fourth family. The first settlement was made in 1734, and Sept. 22, 1744, at the organization of the church, the plantation contained fourteen families, and amongst the number was that of Capt. Israel Towne. The origin of the Narragansett townships was as follows:—Between 1728 and 1733, the General Court of Massachusetts granted seven townships of land, each of the contents of six miles square, to those and the descendants of those who were in the war of 1675, for the subjugation of Philip the celebrated Narragansett Sachem, the townships to be selected from the unappropriated lands of the Province, each township being the property of 120 claimants. After a great number of meetings and adjournments of the grantees, the townships were located thus :—Narragansett No. 1, where Buxton in Maine is now situated; Narragansett No. 2, at Westminster, Mass.; No. 3, at Amherst, N. H.; No. 4, at Goffstown, N. H.; No. 5, at Bedford, N. H.; No. 6, at Templeton, Mass.; and No. 7, at Gorham, Me., this territory then being under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts. Israel Towne d. at Amherst, N. H., in 1791, aged 86 years, and Grace, his widow, in 1803, aged 96.

H., where, Dec. 22, 1748, he and his brother Israel, for £1000, purchased the Taylor farm, consisting of 300 acres, of Widow Abigail Taylor, of Boston. His house was upon the opposite side of the river from that of his brother, was located upon an eminence overlooking the valley of the Souhegan, affording one of the most picturesque views in the neighborhood. It stood about fifty rods north of the present East Milford Rail Road Flag Station, and the spot is marked by an old nearly filled cellar, surrounded by locust trees. He died about 1791, was buried in a field about one third of a mile east of where the above described house was located, a spot used by the early settlers for a place of burial, but which has not been thus used since about the close of the last century.
